

Smart luxury in Cologne

Cologne might not stand out for smart luxury at a first glance, but the city certainly has plenty to offer for visitors looking for something extra special. Alongside a number of selected hotels and premium cuisine, Cologne also boasts a flight of exclusive shopping opportunities, cultural activities and wellness facilities. In all of these areas, the city displays its trademark charm, combining a friendly and outgoing manner with professional and exemplary service.

High-class comfort: Hotels and transport

Located in the heart of Europe, Cologne is quick and easy to reach. First-class rail passengers arriving at Cologne central station by ICE or Eurostar alight in the centre of the city, right at the very foot of the Cathedral. Alternatively, Cologne/Bonn airport, which provides landing facilities for private jets and an exclusive VIP service for charter flights, is only a 15-minute ride from the city. The airports in Frankfurt and Düsseldorf are also less than an hour away. The city's approximately 260 hotels with around 37,600 beds include nine establishments of the luxury category and an additional 61 houses provide first-class comfort in an extravagant ambience, some of them with a special boutique and design character which combines Cologne's hospitality with perfect first-rate service.

Exclusive: Shopping with city flair

Beyond Neumarkt, in the shadow of the beautiful Romanesque church of St. Aposteln, lies the area of Cologne known as Friesenviertel. Here, on Mittelstraße and adjoining Pfeilstraße, Apostelstraße and Benesisstraße, are more than 150 shops selling high-class fashion, shoes, luxurious accessories and jewellery. A top shopping attraction on Mittelstraße is "Apropros – The Concept Store". Entered via a 25 metre long pink tunnel, this establishment is a paradise for lovers of exclusive international brands. The Friesenviertel is also home to a number of excellent galleries and antique and fine art shops. Similarly, the neighbouring Belgian Quarter features designer shops and boutiques with individual fashion creations as well as high-quality labels and accessories.

Recommended: Starred restaurants

Alongside the good, hearty fare served up in Cologne's hallmark breweries, the city also boasts a host of restaurants offering exclusive and creative cuisine. A total of twelve gourmet establishments have been awarded Michelin stars with Ox&Klee topping the bill with two stars. The Gault & Millau restaurant guide lists 40 Cologne restaurants for their outstanding cuisine.

Lots to offer: From culture to wellness

Cologne is known as a centre for arts and culture worldwide. With its annual art fair Art Cologne the city is a showcase for some of the very best in modern and contemporary art with the latest trends in the international art scene. Cologne's museums, too, have major permanent collections and also hold important exhibitions several times a year. The city's opera and theatre houses stage important premieres and world premieres as well as classic works and host guest appearances by international dance companies. The Cologne Philharmonic Hall offers an exceptional venue for concerts, which attracts world-famous orchestras and performers year round.

For visitors on the lookout for rest and relaxation, Cologne has two large sauna and spa centres: Claudius Therme and Neptunbad. In addition, the city offers a wide range of health clubs and hotels with exclusive spa and wellness facilities.
